

LEARNING MODULES

Strategy and Governance

- Develop a strong governance model
- Examine considerations for developing an effective roadmap
- Illustrate the various payroll delivery models
- Identify the importance of standardisation processes, policies, and data privacy and protection

Compliance and Control

- Identify the control and compliance needs of your organisation
- Review how to identify and assess risks
- Design meaningful controls to support global management
- Establish local compliance while having a global view

Leadership Management

- Manage remote staff throughout the world
- Learn the importance of cultural differences
- Discuss effective methods of communication
- Build an effective team to think and perform globally

Being an Effective Business Partner

- Discover the importance of a successful business partnership
- Discuss how payroll can help the business be more effective
- Educate the business on how non-cash or benefits-in-kind items can impact an employee's pay
- Explore how effective partnerships can lead to career development for payroll staff

Earn up to 12 RCHs, 1.2 CEUs, or 14 CPE credits. No advance preparation or prerequisites required.

Field of Study: Business Management & Organization